Spring Break Provides Time For Folktales at The Farm

The kids will be out of school for spring break and finally, there is time for some family time together. Head out to Frying Pan Farm Park and meet Dr. Frank. Using puppets and props, Dr. Frank tells wonderful folktales and stories in an entertaining, grandfatherly style. Choose from two 40-minute performances on Wednesday, March 19, 2008 at 10 a.m. or 11:30 a.m. Admission is $4 per person.

Once the performance is over, you can visit the farm animals, take a wagon ride or shop at the Country Store. Spring is a wonderful time to see newborn farm animals in the barn. Frying Pan Farm Park Visitor Center is located at 2739 West Ox Road in Herndon, VA. For more information please call 703-437-9101, TTY 711 or visit online at www.fairfaxcounty.gov/parks/fpp.
